

About Focal Laser Vision Correction in New York City

Diabetic macular edema (swelling) is the most common cause of decreased vision in diabetic patients. Brighton Eye uses Focal laser treatment to reduce the risk of vision loss in patients with macular edema, which causes an improvement in vision in more than half of patients.

Patient with a leak before and after focal laser treatment.