

Blurred Vision

Blurred vision can be caused by many conditions. Often it is just a sign that the patient needs a change in his/her glasses prescription. But there are many eye disorders that can also cause this symptom.

Among these conditions are: dry eyes, cataract, glaucoma, retinal dystrophies and degenerations (including diabetes and macular degeneration related conditions), and corneal dystrophies and degenerations.