

Punctal Plug Insertion

Punctal plugs are inserted into the tear ducts of the eyes, located in the inner corners of the eyelids. These plugs help you maintain natural and artificial tears longer on the eye surface, so the tears do not “run down the drain.” We may offer you punctual plugs, if artificial tears alone are not sufficient to maintain corneal lubrication, or if your eyes are too dry before/after cataract, LASIK, or PRK surgery.

